

AUSTRALIAN HISTORY

Students researched a Famous Australian as part of their history unit. They worked on their research both at home and in class. A range of significant people including explorers, scientists, authors, researchers, sporting figures and politicians were chosen. Their presentations to the class were very enjoyable and reflected their efforts.

